13. Which statement comes closer to your view about reducing the federal deficit: (ROTATE)

- a) We need more tax revenue as well as spending cuts to reduce the federal deficit. We will never get the deficit under control unless we make the difficult but necessary decision to raise taxes.
- b) Our federal deficit is a result of too much spending in Washington, not too little tax revenue. Instead of raising taxes on anyone, Congress should make the difficult but necessary decisions to get spending under control.

	ALL	REP	IND	DEM
NEED MORE TAX REVENUE	24%	8%	21%	41%

Lame Duck Congressional Session

SPLIT SAMPLE 14A AND 14B

14a.A "lame duck" session of Congress is a session scheduled after an election but before the newly elected congressmen and senators take office. Which statement comes closer to your view:

- a) A lame duck session of Congress is a good idea. It allows Congress to address issues that it did not have time for before the election, and those issues can be addressed without the pressure of an impending election.
- b) A lame duck session of Congress is a bad idea. If one party loses control of Congress, it could try to ram through an agenda that the voters had just rejected, and lawmakers who have been defeated would be making important policy decisions.

	ALL	REP	IND	DEM
LAME DUCK GOOD IDEA	34%	18%	36%	47%
LAME DUCK BAD IDEA	55%	72%	55%	41%
DON'T KNOW	10%	9%	9%	12%

Note: Results based on 506 respondents.

14b.A "lame duck" session of Congress is a session scheduled after an election but before the newly elected congressmen and senators take office. Which statement comes closer to your view:

- a) A lame duck session of Congress is a good idea. It allows Congress to address issues that it did not have time for before the election, and those issues can be addressed without the pressure of an impending election.
- b) A lame duck session of Congress is a bad idea. Members of Congress should cast votes on important bills before facing the voters, not wait until after an election to cast those votes.

	ALL	REP	IND	DEM
LAME DUCK GOOD IDEA	26%	20%	27%	28%
LAME DUCK BAD IDEA	69%	74%	68%	67%

As you may know, Congress has not yet voted on a Federal budget laying out its plans for taxes and spending, and it has not passed immigration reform, a cap-and-trade energy bill, or card check legislation to change the way workers decide on forming a union.

15. Which statement comes closer to your view about why Congress has not addressed these issues: (ROTATE)

- a) Democrats who control Congress have not addressed these issues because Republicans have obstructed and slowed down consideration of almost everything, and they don't want President Obama and Democrats in Congress to get credit for anything.
- b) Democrats who control Congress have not addressed these issues because they are afraid their positions on these issues will be unpopular with voters, and they want to wait until a lame duck session of Congress after the November elections to pass their agenda.

	ALL	REP	IND	DEM
REPUBLICANS OBSTRUCTED	38%	9%	32%	71%
DEMOCRATS AFRAID POSITIONS UNPOPULAR	53%	86%	57%	20%
DON'T KNOW	9%	6%	11%	9%

16. Which candidate would you be more likely to vote for if Congress does not address these issues before the November election: (ROTATE)

- a) Candidate A says these are important issues that deserve to be voted on by Congress as soon as possible. If Congress cannot get to them before the election, then they should be addressed in a lame duck session immediately after the election regardless of the election's outcome.
- b) Candidate B says these are important issues that will have long-lasting effects, and if they're not voted on before the November elections we should wait until the newly elected Congress meets. The will of the people as expressed in the election should be reflected in those policy decisions.

	ALL	REP	IND	DEM
CANDIDATE A	32%	16%	35%	43%
CANDIDATE B	63%	79%	60%	50%
DON'T KNOW	5%	5%	5%	7%

17. Some people say members of Congress running for re-election should rule out voting for tax increases, immigration reform, cap and trade legislation or a card check bill in a lame duck session of Congress. If your member of Congress refused to rule out voting for those important bills in a lame duck session of Congress, would that make you more or less likely to vote to re-elect him?
